Anniversary Walk

The annual anniversary Tramway Walk will take place on Saturday 24th August starting at 10.00am from East Beach car park in Selsey. (Car park charges apply) The route will pass the site of 8 of the 11 stations on the route of the tramway and end at The Anchor Inn in Sidlesham, a total of 6 miles. Please let me know if you would like to join the walk: Billm89@hotmail.com

BBC Sounds

The podcast which David and I recorded with BBC Radio Sussex is now live. It is in the series on Secret Sussex – The Hapless Sidlesham Snail

Exhibition at The Novium

The Selsey Tramway exhibition is now open to the public, until March 2026. The Novium is open Tuesday-Friday 10.00am to 4.30pm and Saturday 10.00am to 5.00pm. Admission is free, with donations welcome. The exhibition includes a film made by Millstream Productions (Emsworth) which features the Selsey Shantymen singing the Siddlesham Snail. The Colonel Stephens Museum loaned a model of the locomotive 'Selsey' and other artefacts were loaned by Alan Green (Chichester History Society)

Copies of the guide are available at the museum and on the website www.mwhg.org.uk/tramway

Chalder Station

We have spent the last year in discussion with the agents acting on behalf of the Church Commissioners, the landowner of Chalder Station. We have now heard that they have recently changed agents, so unfortunately it's back to square. On a positive note, we have made contact with a named person.

Thank you for your continued interest & support.
