Anniversary Walk

25 people attended the anniversary tramway walk at the end of August. The photo was taken near the site of the Golf Club Halt in Selsey– not that anyone would have relied on the Tram to get them to their tee time.

Chalder Station

The weed control matting is still doing its job and the platform remains clearly visible from the adjacent footpath. Negotiations with Savills the local agents for the Church Commissioners remain challenging. We are completing a Management Plan for site which will be submitted to them in the near future.

Other Stations

Singleton Station on the now disused Chichester to Midhurst line has been restored and can be accessed as part of the Centurion Way

Horam Station on the former Cuckoo Line in East Sussex has also been restored and a planning application has recently been approved to provide a kiosk with refreshments for passing walkers and cyclists.

Exhibition at The Novium

The Selsey Tramway exhibition remains open to the public until March 2026. The Novium in Tower Street is open Tuesday-Friday 10.00am to 4.30pm, Saturday 10.00am to 5.00pm. and Sunday 10.00 – 4.00pm
Admission is free, with donations welcome.

Thank you for your continued interest & support.
